DESCRIPTION

Founded by Friedensreich Hundertwasser, the KunstHausWien displays the world's largest permanent collection of his works. Located just a few minutes' walk from the Hundertwasserhaus, it is open daily. Visitors to the Hundertwasser Museum can experience the full spectrum of his work - from his art and architecture to his ecological commitment. The KunstHausWien also presents changing contemporary exhibitions on the environment and sustainability. Taking up Hundertwasser's ideas on ecology, the KunstHausWien was the first green museum to be awarded the Austrian Ecolabel in 2018.
